

2018-2019 Kids Who Care Resident Company Teachers

Deborah Jung received her BA in Theatre from Trinity University in 1975. With teaching specialties in Creative Dramatics, Lessac Voice and Diction, and Shakespeare, her work also includes special populations including MHMR, Tarrant County Juvenile Detention Center, Texas Gifted and Talented, and Cook Children's Hospital.

Hope Wilton is a graduate of The University of Texas, where she received her BFA with an emphasis in theatre education. She is a Kids Who Care alum with 13 years Summer Camp experience. Hope served as the Assistant Director for this summer's Kids Who Care's productions of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and Choices.

Pam Adair, a graduate of Texas Wesleyan University with a BA in Vocal Performance, is KWC's Resident Music Director. She has contributed music compositions and arrangements to KWC's original musicals for the past 20 years. A music teacher for Fort Worth ISD, Pam is the Region Chair for Texas Music Educators Association.

Brittany Jenkins graduated from Texas Tech Univ. with a BA in Dance and a Minor in Human Development & Family Studies. Miss Jenkins toured for 5 years as a student with KWC's Resident Co. and begins her 5th year as the Resident Choreographer. Brittany's training includes the Broadway Theatre Project.

Cory Curvin, holds a Bachelor of Science degree in music and is a native of Mississippi. Cory is a music educator and choral director in Fort Worth and maintains an active performance schedule throughout North Texas. He brings over twenty five years experience as a musical director and collaborative pianist, and has an undying love for the shows from Broadway's golden years.

Kathryn Albright received her B.S. in Communication Disorders and her M.A. in Audiology from the University of Texas at Austin. In 2000, she joined Kids Who Care and has served as Marketing Director, International Relations Coordinator and as the Business Operations Director and currently serves as Development Director. She has been a KidPower Leadership Trainer and the KidPower Leadership Board sponsor for 16 years.